

HUMANITIES

The Humanities Program offers an individualized approach to education. Each student will be challenged to formulate a comprehensive and humanistic program of study.

Although the humanities major is not oriented toward a particular career, its emphasis on critical understanding and disciplined reflection prepares students for later training in many fields of employment including law, government, business, journalism, teaching, and human services.

Requirements for the bachelor of arts degree

I. Core Requirements: 60 credit hours

See Core Curriculum on page 31 for specifics.

Fine arts	3
History	6
English	12
Mathematics	3
Philosophy	12
Science	6
Social science	6
Theology	12

II. Humanities Major: 33 credit hours

Humanities: HUM 200 and 202	6
Foreign language (4 semesters)	12
Humanities electives: English, history, philosophy, theology, arts, humanities	12
Humanities project	3

III. Free Electives: 21 credit hours

Total: 114 credit hours

LEADERSHIP STUDIES

Leadership studies is a broad-based approach to understanding the process of social influence. Participants in this program are equipped with the understanding of how to influence communities, workplaces, and society in order to contribute to an ever-changing world. Students should also consult the Organizational Leadership degree program.

Requirements for the certificate program

LDR 101 Leadership Theory	3
LDR 102 Conflict Resolution	3
LDR 201 Leadership and Diversity	3
LDR 303 Leadership: Ethics and Values	3
LDR 402 Leading Change	3

Special Topic Seminars: (choose two) 6 credit hours

LDR 302 Technology and Global Issues
LDR 330 Leadership and Business Organizations
LDR 332 Leadership and the Political Process
LDR 350 Theories of Power, Influence, and Authority
LDR 401 Leadership and Social Change in American Culture

Total: 21 credit hours