

American Studies Forum
Wednesday, April 6, 2016,
3:30 p.m.
AL-MAG 136

The AMS Forum is an annual event where graduating American Studies majors present their work to the campus community. This year, eight AMS seniors will share projects that illuminate various aspects of the American experience:

Anna Dumais on Georgia O’Keeffe; Cailin Edgar on taverns and the American Revolution; Joseph Ciccarello on musical responses to tensions in the American West; Michael Silveira on oil, OPEC, and the US; Mollie Stackhouse on women’s liberation in the ‘60s; Nally Scaturro on Joseph Heller’s Catch-22; Shelly Grasso on women, politics, and the media; and Wesley Trask on Mormonism.

The event is free and open to the entire Providence College community. With any questions, please e-mail Tuire Valkeakari, Interim Director of the American Studies Program, tvalkeak@providence.edu. If you are a person with a disability and require an assistive device, service, or other accommodation to participate in this event, please contact the Central Reservations Coordinator (401-865-2070; M-F 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.) well in advance of this event.
